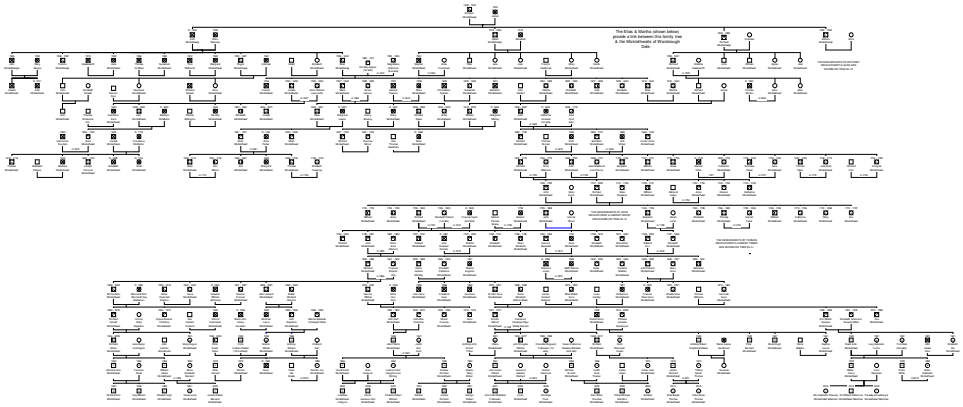
TREE Nr 1a - MICKLETHWAIT ORIGINALLY FROM CANTHORNE / INGBIRCHWORTH & THEN FROM CIRCA 1650 SWINE IN HOLDERNESS & ARDSLEY, Nr. BARNSLEY, YORKSHIRE, ENGLAND.

In early medieval records there are several Micklethwait families - one which appears to have survived the Black Death is shown in the 1379 Poll Tax Records as living at Cawthorne & Ingbirchworth in West Yorkshire.

The Inquisitions Post Mortem records (1236 - 1432) for the county of Yorkshire refer to members of this family.


In Court hawde deeds, there is reference to three generations of Micklethwaits before the time of Edward 1. (1272-1307).
